

MORE INFORMATION

WEATHER

Trujillo has a dry climate with an average temperature of 21°C. The summers can reach temperatures over 32°C and the winters are never colder than 14°C. The temperature stays in the low to mid twenties most of the year. Trujillo is known as "The City of Eternal Spring", because of its very sunny and pleasant weather year-round. The International Spring Festival in early October attracts visitors from all over Peru and from all over the world.

Wear light clothing (t-shirts and shorts), comfortable walking shoes, a hat and sunglasses. Nights tend to cool down, so bring along a light jacket or wear warm clothing. When traveling outside the city on any of the circuits, bring plenty of liquids.

HOW TO GET THERE?

The city is connected to all the main coastal cities by the Pan-American Highway. Important to the city's transportation network is the Cap. FAP Carlos Martínez de Pinillos International Airport. The towns of Salaverry and Chicama (Puerto Malabrigo) are used for maritime connection with the world.

BY BUS

From Lima: 560 km. 8 hours without stop. 10 hours with stops.
From Chiclayo: 210 km / 3 hours
From Piura: 410 km / 6 hours
From Tumbes: 759 km / 11 hours

BY AIR

Daily flights from Lima (50 minutes non-stop)

SUGGESTED FOR

Archaeologist, who will be extremely pleased with the grand historical landmarks.

Nature Lovers, who can enter the Canoncillo Forest and visit its three lagoons.

Surfers, who have great beaches to surf in Huanchaco and Chicama (Malabrigo)

PLACES TO VISIT

IN TRUJILLO

The Cathedral: Built in 1966, it houses precious works of art, in particular paintings from the Cusco School and a collection of religious sculptures.

Ganoza Chopitea House or House of the Lions: For many experts, this house is the most representative in the entire city of Trujillo. Its baroque.